

Hey parents! We're starting a new series on prayer this month called Change.

Week 1 of Change is all about how prayer equals change when you begin and end with God.

This next week in our series Change, we talk about how prayer equals change when you pray with God's own words.

In Week 3 of Change, here is our big idea: prayer equals change when you pray like Jesus prayed.

In our final week of Change, we focus on this: prayer equals change when you pray for what matters most.
